ACCEPTANCE OF A COMPLIANCE LABEL FROM AN OUT OF STATE COMMERCIAL COACH FAQ

The Manufactured Housing Division will issue a Nevada compliance label for used commercial coaches that have a compliance label issued by another state only after certain criteria are met. The Division has created this FAQ to assist applicants in the process All of the below conditions must be met in order for a compliance label to be issued.

1. The certificate of compliance or label of compliance is from a legitimate state manufactured housing agency that has the authority to issue such labels in that state.
2. The certificate of compliance or label contains the serial number of the commercial coach it has been affixed to, and that serial number matches the serial number on the commercial coach.
3. The certificate of compliance or label of compliance contains the following information, or the issuing states equivalent of:

Manufacturer	Date issued
Roof Load	Floor
Wind	Occupancy
Electric	Mechanical
Plumbing	F-S

4. The certificate of compliance or label of compliance is permanently affixed to the commercial coach.
5. Any reconstruction or alteration of the commercial coach has been approved by the Division.

The Division may, at our discretion also require the applicant to submit plans and specifications for review and approval. The Division may also require a letter from the out of state agency confirming the information and/or additional information missing from #3 above. It is unlawful to rent, lease, sell or offer to rent any commercial coach that does not bear a certificate and label compliance label issued by the Division (NRS 489.451).

It is the applicants responsibility to provide to the Division, at the time of submission all of the requested information applicable to their application. It is not the responsibility of the Division to obtain required information and documents. Should you have any questions, please contact your nearest office of the Manufactured Housing Division at the contact information below.

Thank you,
