You may contest the validity of the lien by filing a Notice of Opposition in the Justice Court on the form provided by the Justice Court, or you may use any other legal procedure available to you (see NRS 108.350). (The procedures for contesting this lien are set forth in NRS 108.350 and NRS 108.355, reprinted below.)

If you challenge the lien by court process, including the Justice Court process, and lose, the court could order that you pay for the other side's attorney. If that happens such attorney's fees can be added to the lien amount that you have to pay.

NRS 108.350 Validity of lien may be contested; liability of claimant after sale. Nothing contained in NRS 108.270 to 108.367, inclusive, precludes:

1. The owner of any motor vehicle, aircraft, motorcycle, motor or aircraft equipment, aircraft parts, trailer, recreational vehicle, mobile home or manufactured home; or
2. Any other person having an interest or equity in the property, from contesting the validity of the lien. All legal rights and remedies otherwise available to the person are reserved to and retained, except that, after a sale has been made to an innocent third party, the lien claimant is solely responsible for loss or damage occasioned the owner, or any other person having an interest or equity in the property, by reason of the invalidity of the lien, or by reason of failure of the lien claimant to proceed in the manner provided in those sections.

NRS 108.355 Contesting validity of lien on mobile home or manufactured home.

1. A person contesting the validity of a lien on a mobile home or manufactured home may file a notice of opposition to the lien in the justice court in whose jurisdiction the mobile home or manufactured home is located. The notice of opposition must be filed within 5 days after the person filing the notice receives the notice of sale by auction, must be made on a form provided by the clerk of the justice court and must include the facts supporting the notice. The person filing the notice shall serve certified copies of it upon the lien claimant and the Manufactured Housing Division of the Department of Business and Industry.
2. Upon the filing of the notice of opposition to the lien, the justice of the peace shall schedule a hearing on the notice, which must be held as soon as practicable but not sooner than 5 days after service of the notice. The justice of the peace shall affix the date of the hearing to the notice and order that a copy be served upon the lien claimant within 5 days after the date of the order.
3. The justice of the peace shall either dismiss the objections to the lien claim, declare the lien invalid or declare the amount of the lien if it is different from that described by the lien claimant.
4. After receipt of a notice of opposition to a lien or other notice pursuant to any proceeding to contest the validity of a lien, the Manufactured Housing Division of the Department of Business and Industry shall not transfer the title to the mobile home or manufactured home that is the subject of the lien until the matter has been adjudicated.
5. This section does not affect the rights of a secured party pursuant to chapter 104 of NRS.

NRS 108.2735 Liens on mobile homes and manufactured homes: Expiration. A lien asserted against a mobile home or manufactured home expires 1 year after it is filed with the Manufactured Housing Division of the Department of Business and Industry.
